

Friends, Family, and Supporters,

December 7th, 2019

Merry Christmas to one and all, This is my first newsletter so I am working out the kinks as far as formatting and content but rest assured it will get better. First of all I wanted to thank everyone for your support and this edition will cover events for the entire calendar year up till this date. So lets get it started...

This year I had lost my job at St. Johns Panel Systems where I worked as the Logistics Manager, CAD Programmer, and head techie. But even with me losing my job God was faithful and had his plans for me. At the encouragement of several people in my life I was encouraged to seek a position in Ministry, and specifically with Village Missions. I at first was skeptical, but for every challenge or concern God had an answer or encouragement. In May I submitted my formal application, June was my official Interview with Mark and Bonnie Canady, and only a few weeks ago I attended candidate school in Dallas, OR with 8 other potential candidates and their wives. We all felt the calling to rural missions and all of us were accepted into the VM Family.

Now as to what this will look like moving forward, nothing much is going to happen until next calendar year. I am still in process of raising support, as it stands we are 60% towards the minimum and over 30% toward the monthly goal, thank you to my monthly supporters, my gift givers, and my prayer allies in supporting the ministry God has called us toward. Once the minimum support is raised I will be moving to start my internship to a location I cannot yet officially disclose, but once I can I will let every one know. Other new developments are a website I have setup that hopefully will have constant updates of our ministry, stories, prayer requests, and pictures as well. That page can be found at <http://www.kana-kahuhipa.com>.

I wish you all a Merry Christmas and look forward to a new year full of challenges and adventure with God in this new opportunity to serve Him.
